

I use my XM radio every day in my car and the traffic info is very valuable as I spend several hours a day driving in Major Cities across the Western US. It is a shame and un-american that one business group would prevent a competing communication product or products from the market place via the Government. Don't let it happen!!!!
Thank You

Dave Hausman